I bought 8 of their scent cartridges. I have four of their machines. When I went to replace the cartridge about 40 days later, unopened for cartridges that I put To replace the old ones, no sense or very minimal sense and the sent smelled like it had an old odor. I called to ask for resolution, but they said that theres nothing that they can do when it comes to the cartridges that Im stuck with. They cost a lot of money and I dont think its fair that I lose $300 because of their product

I cancelled my subscription and moved my business and they continued to send product to an empty location and want me to pay for them which I will not because I never received it.

I placed my order on 1/1/2024 and am still waiting on it to ship; they charged my card for  can't get anyone to call me back or help me; when I email the company, they send me an automated email telling me they don't know what went wrong, that the order is delayed somewhere in shipping & they'll get management to email me back once they get ahold of someone!! just want what I ordered or give my $400.00 back!!'ve never seen anything like this in my life!! wish I would have seen these reviews before I'd ordered from them because now I'm totally stuck!
